Subject: Telephonic Interview with the complainant [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Allegation: The complainant, [REDACTED], alleges that on 03 Nov 2011, 1809 hours at [REDACTED] a Chicago Police Officer who was working off-duty security took $201.00 U.S.C. without justification.

On 19 December 2011, Investigating Sergeant called complainant, [REDACTED], at the phone number [REDACTED] listed on the face sheet (attachment #3). [REDACTED] related that a security officer, whom he believe was an off-duty Chicago Police Officer working part-time security at "Impact Security," detained him for Criminal Trespass to property and took $204.00 U.S.C. from him. [REDACTED] further related that he believed that the off-duty officer that took his money name was [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] stated that [REDACTED] was assisted by another male security officer and a female security officer. [REDACTED] stated that two uniform Chicago Police Officer arrived transported him to the 004th district but security officer [REDACTED] never gave the Chicago Police Officers the money. Investigating Sergeant explained to [REDACTED] that if at any time during this investigation it is determined that the security officer is not an employee of the Chicago Police Department; he would have to contact the security company in reference to his complaint.
